What is the UCU Sunday?

UCU Sunday is an annual day-set by the House of Bishops of the Church of Uganda for the Church to come together in support of her University in prayer, increased awareness, accountability and financial support. The day is observed in all Church of Uganda Churches every last Sunday of September. The second UCU Sunday will be held on September 30th, 2018 under the theme, Giving Thanks to the Lord...(Colossians 1:12-14)

How can one support UCU Sunday?

By attending and mobilising people to attend Church services on September 30th, 2018, praying for UCU, and giving financial support in your church that day or directly to UCU. One can also offer to be part of a team of preachers or missionaries who will be visiting different churches that day and subsequent UCU Sundays.

UCU Bishop Tucker school of Divinity and Theology (BTSdT) scholarships. The rest of the collections were used to build structures and facilities for the establishment of the UCU School of Medicine (UCUSoM) to ensure that our medical students receive the best quality teaching. The UCUSoM will admit her first students in August 2018 following the accreditation of our medical courses by the National Council for Higher Education in March 2018. UCU is very grateful to all its donors in 2017/2018 who have made the vision of medical school possible. Establishing a school of medicine is an expensive initiative. The proceeds for the 2018 UCU Sunday will also go towards funding the laboratories of the school of medicine.

How can one make their contribution to UCU?

There will be a collection in your Church on the UCU Sunday, so one can give their contribution and indicate it as a UCU Sunday contribution. One can also deposit money on the “UCU Sunday collection” account in Post Bank Uganda (A/C No. 1630037000131) or send mobile money on 0772 770 852 or email development@ucu.ac.ug.
